Acts 2:42 Community Group Homework

For the week of May 30, 2010

Getting Started:

1. Take time to have one or two people share how God has saved them. Focus on the “what” of your salvation, not just the “when.”

Into the Bible:

In the Proverbs 3:1-10 Proverbs, Solomon exhorts his son regarding importance of remembering the commandments of God.

2. What similarities exist between this passage and the sermon text?
3. What is the blessing of remembering? The danger of forgetting?
4. Effective Bible study involves asking and answering good questions about Scripture. Think through the “who, what, when, where, why, and how” from this passage (Prov. 3:1-10). Write down any other thoughts you have.

Application:

5. How does maintaining a vision of God’s awesomeness impact the way we live our lives on a daily basis?
6. Pastor Trent often says that a goal for our families is to make “God-talk” natural in our homes. What does he mean by that?
7. What are some reasons why we struggle with this?
8. What does it take to make conversation about spiritual matters natural in the home?
9. Give two or three concrete ways you can work on this right away.
