For the week of May 23, 2010

6. Along the same lines of the last question, many people today struggle with the fact that God will hold people accountable even if they have never heard the gospel. How do you handle this objection?

Getting Started

1. When you are lost, which are you most likely to do: a) stop and ask for directions, b) check a map, c) drive around until you find it, or d) not admit to anyone that you're lost?
2. Describe something in your life that was both tragic and joyful.

Into the Bible

3. The number of Israelites that left Egypt is often the source of scrutiny. Compare Exodus 12:37 to the following passages. Does Exodus 12:37 seem to be an accurate number of the people who left Israel?

Numbers 1:21-46 (especially v. 46)

Numbers 26:51

Josh 4:13-14

4. Exodus 12 gives just a glimmer of God's desire for people from all the nations. Read through the following passages and write down any other observations about God's plan for all nations.

Exodus 19:6

Psalm 67

Psalm 96:1-4

Revelation 5:9

5. Some of those who lost their firstborn in Egypt didn't know about the blood on the doorpost. Is this fair?

7. Why did God so abruptly "shove" Israel from Egypt? Why did they need that shove? How might God shove us to do something He wants us to do?

8. Are there some people in your life that you know or that you are acquainted with that seem like unlikely candidates for the gospel? How could you change your attitude about that?

9. How can Willow Creek resonate more with God's heart to see "all nations" come to worship Him?

10. After viewing the purposefulness of God's redemption, in what ways can you become more thankful and give Him the glory He deserves for saving you?
