Acts 2:42 Community Group Study Questions

For the week of February 13, 2011

Just for fun!

1. Would you rather always have to write with your nondominant hand or always have to write with your eyes closed?

Into the Bible

2. Read Psalm 103 together. As you study this psalm, look for three things: something that shines out or draws your attention; anything that is difficult to understand or a question you have; a personal application for your life.
3. If you haven't mentioned this yet, what verse, attribute of God, or promise sticks out to you the most? Why?
4. In Psalm 107, how does the psalmist describe his own emotions and doubt? Have you ever felt like this?
5. What's the turning point in this psalm? What does the psalmist do to revive his hope?

Application

6. What point in Pastor Mike's sermon did you need to hear most?
7. How might the answer to the last question diagnose other issues or struggles in your life?

8. Looking back on your life, are there times you have seen the sovereignty and faithfulness of God in a special way? How can that encourage now?

9. How does God's demand for holiness display his glory? What should our response be to his holiness?

10. God has always tried to be with his people. How can you integrate God into your life beyond the times at church?

11. What was your favorite thing about the study of Exodus and why?
