Jehovah Unveiled

An Introduction to Exodus

Intro: Reasons for studying the Old Testament

1. It aids our understanding of the _____ and _____ of history
2. It shapes our understanding of the _____ and _____ of God
3. It provides us a grasp of _____ truths which are necessary for _____
4. It informs us concerning the _____ and _____ of Christ
5. It contextualizes our interpretation of _____ based on the _____ structure

How should we study Exodus?

1. Our study of Exodus must be biblical

God bringing _____ to Himself by demonstrating that He alone is the Sovereign _____ of history and the _____ of humanity

2. Our study of Exodus must be historical

-Evidence against the Exodus:

-Evidence for the Exodus:

3. Our study of Exodus must be Theological

4. Our study of Exodus must be Christological

5. Our study of Exodus must be practical

There is a connection between _____ of God and _____ to God

Acts 2:42 Community Group Homework

For the week of January 31, 2010

1. Have you ever had to wait a really long time for something? What was it? Was it worth the wait?

Into the Bible

2. Pastor Mike listed five benefits of studying the Old Testament. What benefits have you discovered to be true for yourself? What would you like to know more about?

3. To the children of Israel, God seemed silent, or perhaps even absent, during the 400 years that passed between Genesis and Exodus. What was God weaving together through these “silent” centuries?

Genesis 12:1-3

Genesis 15:13-16

Exodus 1:7, 12, 20

Exodus 12:37

Exodus 32:10

4. Read Psalm 106:1-11 Jot down any insights, questions or key observations, especially related to the message.

5. Pastor Mike said that the Old Testament “provides grasp of redemption truths necessary for salvation.” How is this true of Exodus?

Application

6. Have you ever experienced a time when you failed to obey God, but He overruled and had His way with you regardless?
7. On the one hand, Scripture shows that God is far above His creation—He doesn’t need us. On the other, God establishes a close relationship with His people to accomplish His purposes. How should that change the way that we see God and our service for Him?
8. As modeled in Exodus, how does a greater knowledge of God contribute to obedience to God?
