Putting the "out" Back Into Outreach

Day One

Read: Matthew 1
Discuss: Verse 21.
Pray: Missionaries
Learn: 2 Corinthians 9:8

Day Two

Read: Exodus 16
Discuss: When we complain, who are we really complaining to? See verse 8.
Pray: Pastors and church ministries
Learn: 2 Corinthians 9:8

Day Three

Read: Proverbs 16
Discuss: Can you think of examples of verse 25?
Pray: Government and military
Learn: 2 Corinthians 9:8

Day Four

Read: Romans 16
Discuss: In verse 19, we are to be innocent about evil. This means not only to not do evil things, but not to know evil things. How can we practice that?
Pray: Friends and family
Learn: 2 Corinthians 9:8

Day Five

Read: 1 Corinthians 1
Discuss: What was the problem in Corinth? People can respond to the gospel in only one of two ways? What are they from 1:18?
Pray: Friends and family
Learn: 2 Corinthians 9:8

Acts 2:42 Community Group Homework

For the week of January 17, 2010

1. The first time I became aware of God's love is . . .
2. Think about your own conversion. Take time to have someone in the group share his or her own testimony.

Into the Bible

3. Paul's standard for believers is nothing less than the "gospel of Christ." How is the gospel a standard for our conduct? Why is it the best standard?
4. If possible, look at the end of verse 27 in different versions or compare with your group. How do the different translations of the last phrase help your understanding?
5. In Philippians 2:14-16, Paul stacks up a list of descriptive words and phrases to challenge attitudes of the Philippian believers. What are the words and what does each one mean?

Applications

6. What are the problems of viewing evangelism as a program?
7. Why is staying focused on the gospel critical to the life and the reputation of our church?
8. Pastor said that as a rule he's never met someone who is both "on mission" and critical. Have you experienced that to be true? Examples?
9. What is one way that you can put this message into practice right away this week? What will it take to keep it up for more than one week?
